

SOCIETY

Pleasures of the Week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Logan presided at two very attractive dinner parties on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Mrs. C. L. Chaffee and Mrs. H. C. Oldfield gave two pretty 1 o'clock luncheons in the home of Mrs. Chaffee, on Tuesday and Friday.

The second meeting of a new bridge club that was organized last week was with Mrs. George Burton on Tuesday afternoon.

The Royal Neighbors enjoyed a very pleasant Kensington in the home of Mrs. J. J. Clements, on Wednesday afternoon.

The West Side Whist club enjoyed a very pleasant evening, with L. C. Mittelstadt on Friday.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Christian church gave a St. Patrick's social at the home of Mr. W. T. Berry Friday evening.

The Ladies Guild of Trinity church met with Mrs. George Spear on Thursday afternoon.

A bobbed party was enjoyed by the Norfolk Business college students Thursday evening.

St. Agnes Guild will meet with Miss Irma Spear on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Lena Stewart of Manila has been a visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Durland the past two weeks.

Mrs. W. R. Jones is enjoying a visit from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fleming, of Nova Scotia.

Mrs. E. F. Lefferts of Omaha, spent part of the week in Norfolk, a guest in the home of her father, Rev. J. C. S. Wells.

Jack Koeningstein went to Winner on business.

E. R. Pierson of Omaha is here visiting with relatives.

Mrs. V. H. Oehler and daughter, Francis, of Woodworth, Okla., arrived in the city Wednesday to visit with relatives.

Mrs. Wallace Gallup and little son of Council Bluffs are visiting at the B. J. Sorberger home.

James Walker, who sold his farm south of town recently, is now located at 1302 Norfolk avenue.

The funeral of Mrs. S. G. Dean will be held at the Methodist church at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

A rumor has been circulated throughout the city that the murderer of the little Grand Island girl has been captured.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 with Mrs. Thurber on South Eighth street.

dealers' federation, returned from Omaha, where they attended the state convention of retail dealers.

The executive committee of the firemen's state tournament held their first meeting in the city hall last night.

Washington, March 18.—Application was made to the commerce court by shippers on the board of trade to Kansas City, the Omaha grain exchange, the St. Joseph board of trade and the Atchison board of trade for an injunction to restrain the interstate commerce commission from enforcing its orders regarding payment by railroads of allowances for the elevation of grain at Missouri river cities.

COLUMBUS MAN A SUICIDE.

Henry Wilkinson Found Dead in an Alley at Pasadena, Cal. Los Angeles, March 18.—"Bury me in a bronze coffin, in a cement grave, in our plot at Columbus, Neb.—Henry."

U. S. MARINES LANDED.

Detachment From Monterey Put Off at Swa Tow, China. Swa Tow, China, March 18.—A detachment of marines from the United States monitor Monterey was landed here today in consequence of the continuous disturbance all over the city and the threatening attitude of some of the natives.

NOTED SUFFRAGETTE IS ILL.

Dr. Walker, Who Wears Men's Clothes, Has Bronchitis. New York, March 18.—Dr. Mary E. Walker of Oswego, celebrated advocate of woman's rights, who for half a century has appeared in male attire to support her ideas on dress reform, is seriously ill today with bronchitis at the Presbyterian hospital.

MAY RESORT TO BOMBS.

London Suffragette Saays Bombs Will Replace Bricks in Windows. Chicago, March 18.—Bombs may soon substitute for window smashing bricks in England, Dr. Jesse Murray of London told a meeting of the women's party of Illinois here.

KNIGHTS AT COLUMBUS.

K. of C. Celebration is Held There St. Patrick's Day. Columbus, Neb., March 18.—Three hundred and fifty Knights of Columbus met in this city for the annual initiation, taking in a class of thirty.

BOMB SENT TO JUDGE.

Attempt Made to Take Life of New York Magistrate. New York, March 18.—An attempt to kill Judge Otto Rosalsky, of the court of general sessions, with a bomb, proved unsuccessful.

L. Schiff's home in 1907, and who recently reversed his action. The attack set the whole machinery of the police department speedily at work upon the mystery.

MRS. HULET FOUND IN HOSPITAL.

Missing Tripp County Woman Had Lost Her Identity. Dallas News: Mrs. August Hulet, whose mysterious disappearance at some point in Kansas was chronicled in this paper last week, has been found in a Kansas hospital.

According to an indirect report on the case that reached this office, Mrs. Hulet had completely lost her identity and this accounts for the trouble Mr. Hulet experienced in getting any trace of her when he made the recent trip to Kansas.

His quest to Pittsburg and other points drew some newspaper publicity, and it was from these press reports that the identity of the woman was suspected.

U. S. MARINES LANDED.

Detachment From Monterey Put Off at Swa Tow, China. Swa Tow, China, March 18.—A detachment of marines from the United States monitor Monterey was landed here today in consequence of the continuous disturbance all over the city and the threatening attitude of some of the natives.

Heavy fighting between the Hakka tribesmen and the troops from Canton went on for eight hours today in the streets of the city.

Wisner Ticket Named.

Wisner, Neb., March 16.—Special to The News: A citizens' caucus last night nominated the following ticket: For mayor, S. Empley; councilmen: First ward, A. L. Melcher and Robert Werk; councilmen Second ward, Peter Witt and H. A. Leisy; clerk, C. S. Dilly; treasurer, J. H. Keller; engineer, Fred Schreiber.

Jury Approves Judge Westover.

Valentine, Neb., March 16.—Wholly exonerating Judge W. H. Westover and the officials of Cherry county from the charge of corruption and misconduct of office, approving in every respect the manner in which the cases of the four men charged with the murder of Charles Sellers were disposed of and indicting for libelous statements and false accusations, three prominent editors of Cherry county, the grand jury which for the past fifteen days has been in session here, made its report yesterday.

True Bills Found.

For printing malicious and slanderous statement concerning the disposal of the cases at the October term of court, Ray W. Hitchcock, editor of the Cody Cowboy, and Mrs. Lottie Cramer, editor of the Valentine Searchlight, were indicted for writing and causing to be printed unwarranted charges of corruption and slanderous statements against Judge Westover and the county officials of Cherry county.

Saloon Issue in Cuming.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: For the first time in the history of Cuming county the question of saloons or no saloons will be voted on at the coming spring election in the village of Bancroft.

Atkinson.

W. L. Lowe shipped his household goods to Lincoln the fore part of the week and will make his future home at University Place.

Atkinson.

Peter Duffy who has been in a hospital in Milwaukee, for the past two months is home.

Atkinson.

O. M. Anderson, new station agent, has moved his family here and are nicely located in South Atkinson.

Atkinson.

Within the past two weeks our three hotels have changed hands.

Atkinson.

Miss Rose Scott who has been traveling in the east with an opera company all winter, is home for a visit with her parents.

Atkinson.

Rev. W. W. Wells of Valentine spent Saturday in town calling on friends.

Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Swingley entertained a company of friends Tuesday evening at high-five.

Atkinson.

Mr. J. O. Hubbel of Inez will take possession of the Commercial April 1, and A. O. Perry of Lincoln will take charge of the Park on the same date.

Atkinson.

Mrs. Dr. Townsend is spending a few days with her mother in Omaha.

Atkinson.

Mr. N. J. Tuller left for California last week to visit a brother whom he has not seen for many years.

Mrs. F. Swingley, left for their home in Rockford, Ill., after spending their winter here.

Fell Fifty Feet to Rocks Below.

Wisner, Neb., March 16.—Special to The News: Details of the death of LeRoy Wilson at Cello, near The Dalles, Ore., were received yesterday.

CONTINUE PROBING WILEY.

House Committee Will Not Let Up on Its Investigation. Washington, March 16.—The investigation of conditions of federal bureau of chemistry by the house has not ended at the resignation of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley.

Catches Hand in a Shelter.

Spencer, Neb., March 16.—Special to The News: Catching his hand in a corn shelter, Emil Jungman, a Spencer young man, was so badly injured that his right hand had to be amputated.

Wisner Ticket Named.

Wisner, Neb., March 16.—Special to The News: A citizens' caucus last night nominated the following ticket: For mayor, S. Empley; councilmen: First ward, A. L. Melcher and Robert Werk; councilmen Second ward, Peter Witt and H. A. Leisy; clerk, C. S. Dilly; treasurer, J. H. Keller; engineer, Fred Schreiber.

Jury Approves Judge Westover.

Valentine, Neb., March 16.—Wholly exonerating Judge W. H. Westover and the officials of Cherry county from the charge of corruption and misconduct of office, approving in every respect the manner in which the cases of the four men charged with the murder of Charles Sellers were disposed of and indicting for libelous statements and false accusations, three prominent editors of Cherry county, the grand jury which for the past fifteen days has been in session here, made its report yesterday.

True Bills Found.

For printing malicious and slanderous statement concerning the disposal of the cases at the October term of court, Ray W. Hitchcock, editor of the Cody Cowboy, and Mrs. Lottie Cramer, editor of the Valentine Searchlight, were indicted for writing and causing to be printed unwarranted charges of corruption and slanderous statements against Judge Westover and the county officials of Cherry county.

Saloon Issue in Cuming.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: For the first time in the history of Cuming county the question of saloons or no saloons will be voted on at the coming spring election in the village of Bancroft.

Atkinson.

W. L. Lowe shipped his household goods to Lincoln the fore part of the week and will make his future home at University Place.

Atkinson.

Peter Duffy who has been in a hospital in Milwaukee, for the past two months is home.

Atkinson.

O. M. Anderson, new station agent, has moved his family here and are nicely located in South Atkinson.

Atkinson.

Within the past two weeks our three hotels have changed hands.

Atkinson.

Miss Rose Scott who has been traveling in the east with an opera company all winter, is home for a visit with her parents.

Atkinson.

Rev. W. W. Wells of Valentine spent Saturday in town calling on friends.

Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Swingley entertained a company of friends Tuesday evening at high-five.

Atkinson.

Mr. J. O. Hubbel of Inez will take possession of the Commercial April 1, and A. O. Perry of Lincoln will take charge of the Park on the same date.

Atkinson.

Mrs. Dr. Townsend is spending a few days with her mother in Omaha.

Atkinson.

Mr. N. J. Tuller left for California last week to visit a brother whom he has not seen for many years.

Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartolet, parents of scheduled for the game, but being unable to come. Wayne defeated Norfolk in the game recently but Norfolk found the baskets at will after the first fifteen minutes of play.

The lineup: Wayne Gillette, C. Strahm, Hosman, Gildersleeve, Jones, Koeber, Mines, Smith, Marsteller, Thomas, umpire; Kohl, sub; Levins, referee.

Is no Contest for School Board.

H. C. Matrau, democratic candidate to succeed himself for a place on the school board, has withdrawn his name. C. J. Hibben, republican nominee, has also withdrawn his name.

Headquartered in Norfolk.

Gray was the leader of the Meadow Grove bank robbers and Tom Slavin who was captured in Norfolk, declared that Gray had planned the "job" for a number of weeks before.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUSES HELD.

Nominations Made for City Council and Board of Education. A harmonious convention of republicans met at the city hall last night and nominated the ticket named above.

"Shorty" Gray Was Often Here.

Convict Charles Taylor, alias "Shorty" Gray, known in South Dakota as the "invincible Shorty" and who last Thursday afternoon acted as leader of a trio of twenty-year convicts in the state penitentiary at Lincoln in the assassination of Warden Delahanty, Deputy Warden Wagner, and Usher E. G. Hellman, a former Norfolk pioneer, was in Norfolk last summer and on his trail were three Pinkerton detectives.

He Lived at Yankton.

The story of Gray as related by a Norfolk man who knew him when he first came to Yankton, S. D., twenty-five years ago, is an interesting one.

Aged Bassett Man Takes Own Life.

Bassett, Neb., March 16.—Special to The News: A. C. Stumbaugh, an old and highly respected citizen, who lived on a farm one mile south of Bassett, was found by the family during the afternoon hanging dead in the barn.

Others Killed, He Escaped.

He always escaped. Out of the gang of ten, most of them served terms or were killed. Gray and his gang "worked jobs" in many South Dakota towns, including Waubay, Volin, Summit and Olivette.

most cases some one of his gang were captured or killed. In one season Gray "jobbed" about five towns within four or five weeks and netted about $20,000.

CONTEST T. R.'S. HOPE.

Washington, March 18.—Contests against Taft delegates from all southern states to the republican national convention will be taken before the national committee in June by the Roosevelt forces, according to a statement given out here over the signature of Senator Joseph M. Dixon, Colonel Roosevelt's campaign manager.

For Des Moines Murder.

Des Moines, Ia., March 18.—Warrents were sworn out against Elmer and Roy Schneider of Omaha, charging them with the murder of street car Conductor Frank Ford, when his car was held up on the night of March 4. Robbery is alleged to have been the motive although it is said Ford's assailants were frightened away. The local police claim that the two street car bandits arrested in Los Angeles, Cal., under the names of Ray Nettie and Willis Knowles, are the Schneider brothers.

Mexican Major Executed.

Chihuahua, Mex., March 18.—Major T. R. Aldana, chief of staff to Pancho Villa, who was taken prisoner in the fight between rebels and Villa's band of Conchos river near Santa Rosalia, was executed at sunrise on orders from Gen. Orozco.

A Dozen Were Drowned.

London, March 18.—Seven passengers and three Europeans of the crew of the Peninsular and Oriental steamship Oceana were drowned while their rescue was being attempted after a collision in the English channel of that vessel on Saturday with the German bark Pisagua, which was afterwards taken into Dover in a sinking condition.

Drops Eighteen Stories.

Chicago, March 18.—W. Tracy Clow, connected with J. B. Clow & Sons, plumbing manufacturers, was killed in a tragic manner in the Masonic temple. Temporary illness, following a genital operation, overcame Mr. Clow while he was riding in an elevator in the building.

McFarland Guilty.

Pittsburg, March 18.—Rev. Dr. W. D. McFarland, minister and educator, former head of the Pittsburg Central High school, but later connected with United Presbyterian mission work at Greenville, Tenn., was convicted by a jury in criminal court here of causing the death of his former secretary, Elsie Dadds Coe, last January.

SHALL THEIR WIVES WORK?

Chicago Federation of Labor Says They Can't Have Jobs. Chicago, March 18.—Should the wife of an employed man be permitted to work any place besides in her own home?

LITTLE ALARM IN NEW YORK.

It is Believed America's Coal Strike May Quickly End. New York, March 18.—The belief that a suspension of work in the anthracite coal mines on April 1 because of the deadlock between the operators and the miners of working conditions will not be continued long and that the settlement will be quicky reached, was expressed by coal operators here today.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: William Surber, an aged citizen of Wayne county, died at St. Joseph's Home for the Aged at West Point. The deceased was 85 years of age and succumbed to ailments incident to his advanced age.

Alison Parody.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of Alison Parody, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of William Surber, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of William Surber, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of William Surber, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of William Surber, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of William Surber, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of William Surber, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of William Surber, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of William Surber, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of William Surber, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of William Surber, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

noted authority on arctic explorations as well as engineering and naval affairs.

CONTEST T. R.'S. HOPE.

Washington, March 18.—Contests against Taft delegates from all southern states to the republican national convention will be taken before the national committee in June by the Roosevelt forces, according to a statement given out here over the signature of Senator Joseph M. Dixon, Colonel Roosevelt's campaign manager.

For Des Moines Murder.

Des Moines, Ia., March 18.—Warrents were sworn out against Elmer and Roy Schneider of Omaha, charging them with the murder of street car Conductor Frank Ford, when his car was held up on the night of March 4. Robbery is alleged to have been the motive although it is said Ford's assailants were frightened away.

Mexican Major Executed.

Chihuahua, Mex., March 18.—Major T. R. Aldana, chief of staff to Pancho Villa, who was taken prisoner in the fight between rebels and Villa's band of Conchos river near Santa Rosalia, was executed at sunrise on orders from Gen. Orozco.

A Dozen Were Drowned.

London, March 18.—Seven passengers and three Europeans of the crew of the Peninsular and Oriental steamship Oceana were drowned while their rescue was being attempted after a collision in the English channel of that vessel on Saturday with the German bark Pisagua, which was afterwards taken into Dover in a sinking condition.

Drops Eighteen Stories.

Chicago, March 18.—W. Tracy Clow, connected with J. B. Clow & Sons, plumbing manufacturers, was killed in a tragic manner in the Masonic temple. Temporary illness, following a genital operation, overcame Mr. Clow while he was riding in an elevator in the building.

McFarland Guilty.

Pittsburg, March 18.—Rev. Dr. W. D. McFarland, minister and educator, former head of the Pittsburg Central High school, but later connected with United Presbyterian mission work at Greenville, Tenn., was convicted by a jury in criminal court here of causing the death of his former secretary, Elsie Dadds Coe, last January.

SHALL THEIR WIVES WORK?

Chicago Federation of Labor Says They Can't Have Jobs. Chicago, March 18.—Should the wife of an employed man be permitted to work any place besides in her own home?

LITTLE ALARM IN NEW YORK.

It is Believed America's Coal Strike May Quickly End. New York, March 18.—The belief that a suspension of work in the anthracite coal mines on April 1 because of the deadlock between the operators and the miners of working conditions will not be continued long and that the settlement will be quicky reached, was expressed by coal operators here today.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: William Surber, an aged citizen of Wayne county, died at St. Joseph's Home for the Aged at West Point. The deceased was 85 years of age and succumbed to ailments incident to his advanced age.

Alison Parody.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of Alison Parody, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of William Surber, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of William Surber, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of William Surber, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of William Surber, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of William Surber, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of William Surber, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday. The cause of death was a rheumatic affection, causing partial paralysis.

William Surber.

West Point, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The death is announced of William Surber, an old and honored citizen of Cuming county, which occurred on Sunday